

India peace Centre welcomes Volunteers from Germany

This year another two volunteers from Germany are going to stay with India Peace Centre as an addition to the staff. They work in the office, support programs, seminars and support in the planning process.

They are also part of the “weltwärts” programme supported by German Government and have been selected by “Nordkirche – Centre for Global Ministries and Ecumenical Relations in Northern Germany”, one of our German partners. The aim of the programme is to engage intercultural learning and help them understand global contexts.

Here is a short introduction Leona and Leonie wrote about themselves:

Hello, my name is Leona, I am 18 years and I am from a small village in the north of Germany, near Hamburg. In Summer of 2019 I finished school with my higher secondary and since then I am looking forward to be a part of the India Peace Centre. The important and interesting programs of the IPC as well as Indians diversity in culture attracted me to this beautiful country. I am very glad that I have the opportunity to support the projects of the IPC at my best and to explore India for the next 11 month.

Hi, my name is Leonie. I am 18 years old and come from a small town in northern Germany. I am really interested in politics and cultures and excited about my upcoming experiences in and around IPC. I hope that I will be able to grasp opinions on different ideas of peace and to learn about peacebuilding. Indian traditions, culture and history is also something I am looking forward to learning about.
